John Marshall's Argument in Interstate Case.

About Division.

HE QUOTES MANY FIGURES

Attempts to Show Kansas Gets Worst of It.

Brief Is Exhaustive and Covers Disputed Points.

John Marshall, attorney for the util-ities commission, has prepared his argument in the state's suit before the interstate commerce commission for better freight rates between Kansas points and the gulf. It is an interest-ing and elaborate presentation of facts egarding the alleged injustice of these rates to the shippers and consumers of this state. Mr. Marshall declares that of the $1.80 rate per hundred on merchandise shipped from New York and Atlantic seaboard points to Wichitz the steamship companies get 35 per cent and the railroads 65 per cent. This ratio is for more than five miles of water haul to one of rail haul.

For years Kansas has been fighting or a better freight rate from Galveson, the state's nearest seaport. A ern manufactured products at a price that will enable Kansas jobbers to compete with Missouri river basing points. This guif rate means great things for the state and is one of the most important and far reaching cases in which the state has been the plain-case document is plain and to the point. He has not wandered into a thicket of technicalities and figures but rather has hammered out his case. Mr. Marshall's argument, for a rate ather has hammered out his point in a rate is $5 cents.

From New York to Wichita via Galveston, the rate is $1.80.

From New York to Wichita via Savannah and other South Atlantic ports, the rate is $1.80.

From Norfolk to Wichita the rate is $1.99 \%.

From Savannah to Wichita the rate is $2.10 \%.

Distances to Wichita

Distances to Wichita.

Distances to Wichita.

Wichita is situated in the south central portion of Kansas, 722 miles north of Galveston on the Santa Fe; 1,248 miles west of Savannah via Central of Georgia, through Birmingham, thence over the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad. Wichita is 1,488 miles west of Norfolk, via C. & O., through Cincinnati, the B. & O. S. W. to St. Louis and thence over the Missouri Pacific railroad. Wichita is 1,502 miles west of New York via the Baltimore & Ohio railroad to St. Louis and the Missouri Pacific from St. Louis to Wichita. Wichita is 671 miles and the Missouri Pacific from St. Louis to Wichita. Wichita is 671 miles southwest of Chicago via the Santa Fe and 739 miles via the Rock Island; 595 miles southwest of St. Louis via the Frisco and 479 miles via the Missouri Pacific; 215 miles southwest of Kansas City via the Santa Fe and 222 miles via the Rock Island, and is 171 miles north of Oklahoma City on the Santa Fe.

Santa Fe.

From New York to Wichita by rall and lake, it is 2,062 miles. This is up the Hudson river, through the Erie canal and through the lakes to Chicago, 1,591 miles, and over the Santa Fe from Chicago to Wichita, 671 miles.

Other Distances.

The distance from New York to Galveston by water in statute miles, is 2.190 miles; from New York to Savannah by water it is 845 miles. Ratio of Water Miles to Rail Miles. The rate from New York via Galves-ton to Wichita is $1.80. This is divided 35 per cent to the steamship and 65 per cent to the railroad, making 63 cents to the steamship and $1.17 to the railroads. $1.17 carries 100 pounds of freight from Galveston to Wichita-722 miles over the Santa Fe, one cent carrying 100 pounds 6.17 miles; then 63 cents, the division to the steamship, will carry this 100 pounds of freight 63 times 6.17, or 388 miles. This di ision of the rates from New York to Wichita via Galveston is upon a basis of more than five miles of water haul to one of rail haul.

Let me briefly say that these rates from New York to Wichita and other Kansas points via Galveston should be educed and a differential in favor of that route be fixed for the following

First-Because under the present system of rates, Wichita and Kansas Haven are discriminated against in that Wich-Boston. ita and Kansas are paying higher rates of freight than they should pay ir order to benefit other communities and protect the rail carriers from each other. Second-Because under the present rates and system of rates we are payng the price that keeps the peace be tween the railroads.

Third-Because Galveston is our near est seaport and we should be assisted to get there and not be prevented from ng there by a system of freight Fouth-Because the Galveston route gives to Kansas the longest possible steamship transportation with the shortest rail haul from New York, the combination of which water and rail carriage makes the shortest route expressed in rail miles.

Fifth-Because under the present rates the steamship lines receive as their division of the rate an amount largely in excess of what is justly re-munerative to them and an amount largely in excess of that for which they will perform the service.

Sixth-Because it costs less to ship goods to Wichita via Galveston than by any other route.
